Many people are trying to justify Trumps actions; the covid killer vaccines, the lockdown destruction of society over an obvious faked virus and so on. Even Fulford is still talking about white hats and two Trumps.

We publish Benjamin Fulford articles on Truth11.com and have done so because he has been right on many occasions. However one subject w about is the tale of two Trumps and the silent white hats that have let genocide happen without lifting a finger.

Trusting the plan seems very much like waiting to be killed.

We have never subscribed to the idea of trusting any plan that hides in the shadows and allows what has happened to come to fruition.

Benjamin Fulford continues to write about white hats and two Trumps;

This confirms what eyewitnesses at Mar A Largo have told us in the past; the person appearing in public as Trump is not him. We keep hearing from our US Space Force sources the real Donald Trump is at the Mt. Cheyenne military base in Colorado directing the military white hats. This Trump we see in public now is a white hat actor working for the Trump in Mt. Cheyenne. - Benjamin Fulford

I have been questioning the rational and logic behind these statements for some time and have commented on his articles explaining my concerns about this subject.

Everyone is trying to do mental gymnastics to understand what is happening with Trump. Creating every possible scenario except the one that he is on their side and his actions are actually his actions and he is responsible for them.

Many have tied Q and the white hats to Trump, as a way of saying he is doing one thing yet saying another.

Politicians have been called acrobats for years; balancing perfectly between saying one thing while doing the exact opposite. This is not a new strategy, this is how politicians work.

To combat this obvious discrepancy in the case of Trump as a typical acrobatic politician, doing the opposite of what he states; is the creation of the Q, white hat, two Trump story.

Throughout the covid scam and before the vaccines were launched (also during), I have yelled from the rooftops that waiting for white hats will be too late. Which it was, they let the vaccine roll out happen and the resulting genocide.

Their stated strategy of letting the world see the evil before they do something is crap. If it was a real strategy it was the worst idea ever conceived. "Wait for people to be killed so we can save the world". Crap.

Trumps actions with the Covid vaccine roll out, put him squarely in the guilty category of genocide against the American people.

Yet for some reason, some call it 5D chess, I call it complete bullshit, we are to believe that Trump is somehow not responsible because the person who locked down America and launched the covid vaccine bioweapons in warp speed fashion, was not actually Trump but an actor playing Trump and the real trump is tucked up nice and cozy in Cheyenne Military base, directing the white hats.

Crap.

This pathetic story has no bearing on reality and logic.

If there is a person who is an imposter, who unleashed a deadly injection and killed millions, why the fuck did the real Trump not stand up and say, "hey thats not me, I am here hiding in a mountain, don't get that vaccine"?

Trust the plan, white hats are coming, wait and see has not been a good strategy to follow. Millions have died, are disabled and many more will die due to the warp speed military attack on the US.

Some state that the white hats are waiting to show the world how bad it all is. How bad is it supposed to get before the white hats stand up and speak the truth out in the open?.

The white hat bullshit movement has done nothing, except let all this happen.

They could end this farce very easily. Come out and publicly declare the truth.

Let the truth be known instead of hiding in the shadows under their white hats.

Let us see both Trumps in a room together, one calling out the other.

There is no reason whatsoever that the truth should not be told to the public at all times.

The truth will set people free: Lies, 5D Chess, clandestine movement's, waiting strategies, trusting plans and tales of two Trumps will not.

If the white hats are real, their strategies have failed. The blood of the dead vaccinated is on their hands.

If there is one Trump or two, it matters not, as the blood of the dead vaccinated is on both of their hands.
